A FEMALE THUG.

Horrible Treatment of a Child by its Mother.

(From the St. Louis Democrat, July 15.)

An affair was reported by the police yesterday, which, as stated, is an exhibition of the most fiendish cruelty on the part of a parent toward a child, almost unparalleled in the annals of crime, in this or any other State. In consequence of information received from various persons residing in the neighborhood, Mary Noel, a colored woman, living on Sixteenth street, between Christy avenue and Orange, was arrested Sunday night by Detective Hennessey. About eight o'clock Sunday morning the colored people who inhabit that quarter were awakened by piteous cries proceeding from a second story room in the rear of the row of rickety frame buildings which front Sixteenth street—moans and cries, "Oh, God, have mercy! Oh, God, please send some one to cut me down! Oh, God, give me some water; I am dying!" Two or three colored men hurriedly gathered around the back yard in the rear of the room, and after a hurried consultation went up the stairs and broke into the darkened room. Windows were thrown up, and the light revealed a pitiful object,—a child, her arms pinioned closely over her head by a rope which was suspended to a hook to the ceiling, and so suspended that, the child's toes barely touching the floor, she was thrown forward with her whole weight on her pinioned hands. Beneath the child was a raw-hide which had evidently been applied to the lacerated back and sides, which showed also the more wasting traces of slow starvation in his bony, attenuated outlines. Neighbors gathered around; new clothes were placed upon the child's back, food was given her, and she was given over to the care of the police. At 4 o'clock the mother returned home, having been doing some cooking in a private family in the western portion of the city. When informed of what had been done with the child, she expressed the greatest indifference, and said she was glad somebody had taken it. She didn't want it any longer. A few minutes after she was taken into custody.

It is stated that for nearly a week this fiend in the garb of a woman has daily fastened up the child, whose name is also Mary Noel, in the manner already described, and in this position left her from early morning till late in the evening, when this so-called mother would return from work. Frequently, while the child remained in that position, her mother, it is said, inflicted from twenty to fifty stripes upon the bare back with a rawhide thong, which was used with a skill worthy of a Legree or Tom Loker. If the child cried or made any noise, she was taken down and thrown violently on the floor. Then the woman would place her foot on the child's neck, and beat her until, as one of the neighbors expressed it, "her belly was a poultice." Sometimes the operation was varied by placing the child on the floor on its face, and its back was scarified. A foot firmly planted on the child's neck held her in this position, and a pillow in which its face was buried, smothered its cries. Another operation was to souse the child's head and body into a tub full of water and held it there several minutes, "like you would a kitten," said a neighbor. This was generally followed by a whipping, which seemed to be the expedient in helping the child into the next world. During the whole week no food had been given it, until Sunday, except what was passed through an aperture in the window on the end of a clothes-prop by some of the neighbors. At times she would not dare to take even this, asserting that she was affraid her mother would find it out and whip her for it. When she did receive it, it had to be conveyed to her mouth, as she could not free her hands to take it herself. The appearance of the child, when taken to the Third District Station, was pitiable in the extreme. She is a bright intelligent-looking girl of eight years, though from the cruelty that has been practised upon her she does not appear to be more than five. Her body is in the most emaciated state, while the back is one mass of bruises and festering sores. The stomach is abnormally large, from the effects of the violence and heavy blows and kicks which she has daily received. There is scarcely any flesh about her, the bones almost protruding from the skin, which appears to hang on the body like some unnatural covering.

The woman is a hard-looking creature, apparently capable of any act of cruelty, and whose countenance betokens more of the savage than of the civilized human being, though her calm, collected manner, and the tone of her conversation, indicate that she is capable of the more refined cruelty of long-continued torture than would characterize the proceedings of the more untutored. She has been frequently heard to say that she knew God intended the child to live, but that she intended it to die; and if she could not kill it by any other means, she would cut its head off. She is described as being over six feet in height, and of heavy, though not fleshy build. Her neighbors assert that she was not in the habit of drinking. She has one other child, a boy of 3 or 4 years, and lavished upon him all the tenderness of her fierce nature.

LADIES AT CAPE MAY.

Pittsburgh Girls Scandalized—Taste and Refinement of the Quakeresses.

It might be surmised that Cape May is a dressy place, because dressing and driving go together usually. But this would be erroneous, for it is a resort where one can do as one pleases in the matter of toilette, the great majority being opposed to extravagance and eccentricity. Whenever I have seen toilettes that were in the least what the French would call ebouriffantes, I have said to myself, "That's from Pittsburgh," and on questioning any one of the polite clerks, I have invariably found myself correct. The fact is, as I suppose, that the people of Pittsburgh have for some time been making money very fast with a pretty sure expectation of continuing the pleasing task. They have not had time to learn the many graceful ways in which wealth can be gracefully exhibited, and being determined to bring their dollars into evidence, have no other resource than dress and diamonds. Probably Cape May would suffer from this but for two things, the extreme good taste of the Baltimore ladies, who are not in the least averse to purple, fine linen and silk attire, and the remnant of Quakerism among the Philadelphians. The lady Quakers do not altogether abjure colors, and lace and ribbons, but everything is softened down with a skill which, were it not the offspring of a religious sentiment, I should have supposed came from a most refined coquetry. If Americans want to see the true beauties of their charming country, let them come to Cape May. I have seen here, in the Stockton Hotel, no less than three old ladies, old in the truest sense, who were positive beauties. Their complexions were perfect, their eyes brilliant, their teeth faultless, their walk undulating, and the youngest of them was over sixty. Nowhere in the world can one see so many adorable old ladies as in America, and nowhere in America so many as in Cape May. I try in vain to remember what one of them, who has specially captivated my affections, wore when I last saw her. It was soft, and it was cameo color, and it was trimmed with something, but what I cannot recollect. But I perfectly remember that the effect was altogether charming, and that as we descended the broad stairway together chatting, we came upon a group of Pittsburgh girls dressed for the evening hop. They were pretty girls, with faces full of affection and good humor, but as the old Quakeress passed by they suddenly became tawdry, insipid, and toneless. Such a change I imagine would befall a few Geromes, Merles, Coutines, &c., if a Titian or a Rembrandt were suddenly set in the midst of them. And then the manners of the Quakeresses are so perfect. There is nothing in the old noblesse of Europe equal to it. It is perfect fascination. Their voices are low and sweet, and they never strain after effect, and seem to sympathize so perfectly with the person with whom they are conversing as to place him completely at his ease, and make him show himself at his best. Judge what refining influences these most excellent beings must have upon the mixed multitude of a hotel. The younger Quakeresses are as perfect in dress and manner, but there is a difference. They are more earnest even to a spice of combativeness, and they have ideas regarding the rights of women, which even epigrams will not put down. Their voices are so sweet and gentle and their faces so divinely exquisite that the rudest boor would not dare to talk about crowing hens, and the most opinionated listens with pleasure.—*Cor. N. Y. RAIN AND THE CROPS.

General Review of the Harvest.

Just in the nick of time, precisely when everybody despaired of rain, the grateful showers have come, and the thirsty earth has had a benefit. This rain will not save what is already lost, but it will put some degree of life into certain classes of vegetation, which for a week past has had their doubts as to whether it was best to live at all. It was fortunate for the grasshoppers that they did not come this way. They would have been the worst starved pest that ever hastened to undo the work of the agriculturist. There has been absolutely no food for them. Even the legitimate grazers and nibblers have found their commons very short and very dry. There has been of late a tolerably free fall of rain over the States, and areas which were left so long out of the scheming "probabilities." A good deal more would be welcome, but what has fallen will be of immense service to the corn, to late grass, to the gardens, and to the Fall crop generally. The dry area seems to be from Delaware to the centre of Maine. In Eastern Maine the hay crop is unusually large, while from the Penobscot to the Nanticoke it is one constant story of no rain, no potatoes, sickly corn, oats worthless, and berries of no account. Now go Westward, and after Lake Erie is reached the promise of the harvest is good. In Kansas and Minnesota the wheat crop is unprecedentedly large. In Michigan the wheat is of superior size, while the hay has been damaged by the rain. On the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad the corn looks magnificently, and the harvests of earlier grains have been most abundant. At the South and Southwest the complaint is of too much rain, but the planters have concluded not to surrender their cotton to the weeds, and they look forward to a yield of large and profitable dimensions. Fortunate it is for the sections where drought has prevailed, that the heat has been moderate. This circumstance has preserved the community in health, and has saved the land from complete waste.—*N. The Impersonator of "Wrestling Joe." of Oregon Confesses the Fraud.

The confession of Wrestling Joe, who was supposed to be heir to the Caruthers estate, is published in Portland, Oregon. Many witnesses have sworn that he is Joe Thomas, or Wrestling Joe, and many others that he is Jas. W. Davidson, 91 years of age. In the confession he claims that his name is John C. Nixon, and that he is only 60 years old; that he never was in Oregon until certain parties picked him up in St. Louis, in 1870, while he was begging, and offered him $8,000 to personate Wrestling Joe. It seems that only $6,000 was received by him, and the balance not being forthcoming, he confessed. Mrs. Nixon is in Portland, and testifies to the truth of the statement of Nixon. James Moore and Green C. Davidson, who brought Wrestling Joe, or Nixon, to Oregon, have been tried for forgery, and acquitted.

NEW YORK.

The Brooklyn Trust Company Suspended.

AN $800,000 DEFALCATION.

The President of the Bank Commits Suicide.

NEW YORK, July 19, 1873.

A Brooklyn Bank Suspended.

This morning the Brooklyn Trust Company, of which Ethelbert S. Mills, who was drowned on Tuesday last at Coney Island, was President, suspended payment. It was discovered that Mills had overdrawn his account about $150,000, and it is said that the account of Thomas S. Rodman, the Secretary, is short $54,000. For the latter amount the company holds collaterals, but whether they are good or not remains to be determined. The defalcation was not definitely ascertained until yesterday, when it was brought to light by an investigation instituted by the directors. Not only did they find that Mills had overdrawn his personal account, but they also discovered that he had taken worthless securities for the sum of $300,000, so that altogether there was an inroad of $450,000 made upon the capital stock of the company. The securities in question are from the State of Georgia and the New Haven, Middletown and Willimantic Railroad Company. On the former Mills had loaned $150,000 upon $200,000 of Bullock's bonds, which it is claimed were illegally issued and the interest on which the present authorities decline to pay. Whether the railroad bonds will ever become worth much is a question. In the meantime the simple facts are that while the capital stock is $500,000, there are over $300,000 in unavailable bonds. The deposits last evening were about $2,3000,000, of which about $450,000 belonged to the city, $68,000 to the county, and $400,000 to Mr. Stillman, of the firm of Barney, Butler & Parsons, of this city. Mr. Stillman represents as a depositor several trusts, among them the funds of one or two collapsed insurance companies for which he was receiver. Eight Directors made a statement to the public that they believe it entirely possible for the company to continue business in a few days, and that depositors will lose nothing. Daniel Chauncey has been appointed Receiver.

The Union says since the recent developments in regard to the affairs of the bank, many persons who first believed Mills met an accidental death, incline to the opinion that he committed suicide, rather than face exposure, which be saw was inevitable.

The Telegram has the following: "This afternoon a Telegram reporter was informed that further investigations of the committee, to-day, reveal the fact that both the capital and surplus of the company—the former $500,000, and the latter $150,000—have been almost obliterated, and that the losses of the company, by the defalcation of the President and bad debts, exceed $600,000."

Mortuary Report.

The mortuary report for the week shows an increase of over twenty-nine per cent. in deaths as compared with last week.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The steamers City of Chester and Batavia, from Liverpool, have arrived.

The Trust Company Defalcation.

NEW YORK, July 20, 1873.

The belief that Mr. Mills, late President of the Brooklyn Trust Company, committed suicide, is becoming quite general. It is said that on the day before his death some of the directors of the bank informed him that an examination of his accounts would be commenced the next day. On Monday afternoon Mills obtained a full settlement with his land agent and deposited a check which he received from the latter in the Nassau Bank to his wife's credit. After this transaction he settled the accounts of his butcher and baker, which were usually paid at the end of each month.

If well authenticated rumors circulated last evening are to be accepted, Mills' conduct at Coney Island during the last night of his life gives material support to the suicide theory. It is stated that he did not retire to his bed room until a very late hour, and next morning it was found that his bed had not been slept in. At the time of his death these facts were studiously concealed, but yesterday those in possession of them concluded that further secrecy was useless.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—The action of the Republican Convention in refusing to require candidates for the Legislature to pledge themselves to give their views on the questions of railroad monopolies, reducing railroad tariffs and currency, causes severe comment, and shows clearer than ever that Billy Carr, Sanford's agent, controls the majority of the Convention. This gives strength to the tax-payers' independent movement.

SPRINGFIELD REGATTA.

After the Race.

CARD FROM THE UMPIRE.

The Lesson to be Learned From Yale's Victory—The Disappointed Harvards.

NEW YORK, July 19.—John C. Babcock, umpire at the late College regatta at Springfield, publishes a card, in which he says: It is proper that the public should be informed of certain facts which will explain the confusion that resulted in determining the actual winners. The score, or finishing line, instead of being located at right angles with the river banks, as it should have been, was, by carelessness or stupidity on the part of those who located it, placed diagonally, the eastern end of the line being some one hundred and fifty yards lower down the river than the easterly end, where the judges were requested by the umpire to station themselves. By this arrangement the boats arriving at the easterly end of the line, which was some two thousand feet long, rowed a proportionally longer course than those coming in on the westerly shore. Had the line been located properly at right angles with the course of the boats, the result of the race would have been entirely different and the race decided on the merits of the crew, instead of chance in the position of crossing a line, no two points of which were equi distant from the start. The staking out of the course or the changing of the same was wholly with the regatta committee, and not within the province of the umpire, who supposed it to be correct. The reports of the eleven judges elected to serve at the score will be received in a few days and the position of the seven boats not placed will then be announced.

Every prize in the regatta goes to New Haven. University, Freshman, and single scull races are all won by the Light Blue, with thirteen massive cups and two pair of colors. This is the more remarkable when the remarkable failure of the Yale in last year's races is remembered. Not satisfied with bringing up the rear in the Freshman race, Yale then came in last in the University race, even behind the Bowdoin, who had a man very sick, and Williams who had a broken oar. She has evidently learned a good lesson in the school of adversity. The result of the race will be the general imitation of the English stroke as interpreted by Cook, with a tendency to strength in back and loin and to a slow stroke of 30 and 32 to the minute. A minor result will be to awaken a lively dissatisfaction among Harvard men, which assures a hard struggle next year between these crews, at least. There seems to be good reason for believing that Wesleyan was but two seconds behind Yale, and Harvard ten seconds behind Wesleyan. The Amherst judge puts in a claim of second for that crew, which was so far off from the others on the west side of the river, that a mistake might easily have been made in the descending darkness. This claim is not generally credited, but it can be seen from the uncertainty what a magnificent struggle it was. The next four crews—Cornell, Bowdoin, Dartmouth, and Columbia—were all again so close together that it is not yet known decisively which is which. The "Aggies," who claim to have been eighth were ninth, according to the universal verdict, and Trinity unquestionably was last, except Williams, whose condition is mainly ascribed to the fact that "they had a passenger" Mr. Adams, the new man, being little better than useless, for want of drill and training. The judges are to forward their testimony on all the contested points to the referee, who will decide.

A correspondent of the New York World, writing from Springfield under date of the 18th, says: Probably the most bitterly disappointed man in town to-day is Dana, the Harvard stroke. Of course the referee has not changed his formal decision that Yale won the great race, and that Harvard was third. Indeed it should be said to the credit of the losers that he has not been asked to do so. But still, frankly and freely admitting a defeat does not heal completely the wound it has caused—deeper in this case than in others because of the first belief in the winning of victory. Then that unfortunate delivery of the flags to the Cambridge crew by some bilarious and unauthorized person, and the still more unfortunate expressage of them to Cambridge—perfectly justifiable under the supposed circumstances—both made the descent from the summit of joy to the depth of chagrin harder to bear. But more than all Dana probably curses himself for the mistake which he made in neglecting to familiarize himself with the precise position of the line at the finish.

But the bone of contention was the second place. All last night the Amherst boys kept fighting hard for a forlorn hope, and it is not probable that they slept much after retiring. According to the testimony of one judge the bow oar of the second boat had a large A on his back; and I believe this is corroborated by another judge. Furthermore, on good authority, it is asserted that when the boats were out of sight from the Wesleyan quarters, Wesleyan, who was behind Yale, was seen to be passed by Amherst. But this last assertion, if true, has little weight. For a mile of the race was then remaining to be rowed, and many changes may have taken place. And the universal testimony of the Yale crew, who certainly ought to know, is that the boat which followed them over the line was Wesleyan. Of this the Wesleyan themselves are positive—loudly positive. The only thing which argues against them is their statement that Harvard rowed across their bows repeatedly just before the finish, giving them the "swash," so as to embarrass them. If this were true, and they were behind Harvard (the third boat), some other must have been second. But it is scarcely probable. Everybody would justly scout the idea of the playing of any such trick by any such men as Dana has always been known to be and has especially during and since the race proved himself. So the referee decided this morning to place Wesleyan second. The Regatta Committee held a meeting at half-past ten o'clock and discussed matters which were then and are now sadly confused. Five of the judges were present, and after a long talk came to the lame and impotent conclusion that beyond who won and who was third they knew nothing of anything connected with the race.

Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—Two deaths from cholera were reported in the city to-day.

CINCINNATI, July 20.—Three deaths from cholera were reported this forenoon during the hours the Health Office remained open.

Mt. Vernon, Ind.

EVANSVILLE, IND., July 20.—A Journal special from Mt. Vernon states there is no abatement of the cholera symptoms. Since yesterday several new cases have been reported, and six deaths occurred there in the city and three near the suburbs. More than one-half of the population has left the town, many hundreds of them coming to this place, and others are now preparing to leave unless a favorable change occurs immediately. No pretense of business has been made for several days, and the city has a lost, deserted and lonely appearance. Physicians have arrived from several of the surrounding towns and are rendering all the assistance in their power. Among the deaths to-day were Dr. Motzdoff, a young German physician of much promise, who has, since the appearance of the epidemic, been most active in his efforts in behalf of the sick and dying, and John Woody and two daughters. The latter were the last but one of a family of ten who have within the week been cut down by the terrible disease. It has occurred in three distinct cases that four deaths have occurred in a single family, in one instance leaving but one living. But there has been no case equaling in sadness this one. An appeal was made to the city for physicians and nurses, those already there being worked down. The work of disinfecting is still in progres.

During last week six deaths from cholera occurred in Evansville, and two new cases were reported to-day, but no deaths.

KING OSCAR has undergone his second coronation. A few weeks since he was crowned King of Sweden, and now he has been crowned, at Drontheim, King of Norway. He is a well crowned King.

THE fact that an indemnity of two millions of roubles was imposed on the Khan of Khiva, as the condition of his being permitted to rule, shows that Russia regards him as under her "protection." This is farther shown by the determination to build a Russian fort, on the Oxus, near Khiva.

SENATOR CARPENTER's plea in extenuation of the acceptance of the back pay was that the Constitution requires that the "Senators and Representatives shall receive a compensation for their services to be ascertained by law," and therefore he was compelled to receive the compensation voted him by law. What outrageous criminals are those misguided men who refused back pay. The Senator should move a vote of censure, when Congress meets.

THE University races, which resulted in a victory for the Yale crew, attracted unusual attention, this year, and the concourse of visitors was very large. It was a fairly conducted race, and in every way interesting to observers, and is accepted as a fair test of rowing ability and skill. The result will be, a decided increase in the interest with which this form of exercise and skill is regarded, and the multiplication of rowing clubs. So far as its relation to colleges is concurred,—it has come to be regarded as an essential. Should it not detract from proper attention to studies, it may be commended for the exercise and health it affords.

THE Chicago Tribune publishes a nonsensical statement, affirming that Senator Cameron, of this State, is out against Blaine, as a candidate for the Presidency, and is in favor of Grant for a third term. A few facts will set this absurd story at rest. Blaine is not a free trader, and in the nature of things is not likely to be. His property and interests, if nothing else, attach him to the policy of protection. Senator Cameron is not in the habit of fighting the wind. An old and shrewd politician, he is clear-sighted enough to see that the question of a successor to Grant is not sufficiently developed yet to be worth discussing. Hence, it may be set down as idle talk, this report of Cameronian hostility.

CALEB CUSHING bids fair to achieve a new form of reputation, by means of a howling dog. Fernando Wood, or his man Kelly, had a dog, whose nightly howling disturbed the rest and slumber of the diplomatist and lawyer Cushing. Whereupon, after sundry consultations, particularly with a Spanish diplomatist and lawyer, suit was finally brought against that dog, and, as a result, the dog was ordered to be killed. Cushing deserves the sincere and enthusiastic gratitude of every person who is compelled to toss, sleepless and nervous, in his couch at night, because of the energy of strong voiced, but unmelodious dogs. He has established a precedent. A night-howling dog is a nuisance to be abated by due process of law.

THE outcome of the suit in equity, which resulted in a verdict that was apparently against the interests of the Pennsylvania Railroad, may be entirely in its favor. At the last session of the New Jersey Legislature, a general railroad law was enacted, under which the Pennsylvania Railroad is building a road between Philadelphia and New York. It is said that it is not making ten per cent. on the capital stock of the United Companies, which the lease compels it to pay, and that hence it may choose to give up the lease. This the decision rendered enables it to do. On the other hand, as the Legislature ratified the lease, the equities are changed, and it can if it desires, retain possession. Thus it has two strings to its bow—and the contestants may be made to suffer.

WE ARE not surprised that the Philadelphia Press should claim the Mechanics' High School for that city. Why not? Has not the Legislature lavished the wealth of the State for years, upon Philadelphia, and is there any good reason why the flow of greenbacks should cease. Did it not give it a handsome sum as a douceur to the enterprise of that patriotic city, which will honor the country with a Centennial Exposition in 1876—out of pure love for the Declaration of Independence? And were the Mechanics' High School established there, would it not afford a reason why the Legislature should donate Philadelphia a million or so more? Certainly, the school must go there. What is Pittsburgh but a city of soot and smoke—a place of mechanical industry? Why should it have a Mechanics' High School?

THE New York World is rapidly earning a reputation for unreliable sensationalisms. Between the Shah and Bismarck,—it shows a penchant for persons in high station—it is making itself ridiculous. Its latest venture is to reveal the inner thoughts and secret motives of Bismarck in his war on the Jesuits. It represents him as admitting that he is not sustained by the Emperor or Crown Prince, and that he is not fighting Jesuitism in particular, but Christianity generally. In all this he seeks, it is said, to substitute the State for the Deity as an object of worship. We do not presume Bismarck ever uttered a syllable like this. However devoted a monarchist he may be, or regardless of religion, he is one of the shrewdest diplomats of Europe. This being the fact, he would not be at all likely, were he even to desire it, to give expression to the wish, that the people should worship the State and abandon all other religion. The impression created, naturally, by the conversation reported, is precisely what the Jesuits he is fighting desire to have developed—that he is an enemy to all religion. But the canard is too transparent to be of value.

THE USUAL Summer stagnation of business has set in, but there are indications of a favorable fall trade. The export and import showing at the principal ports, show that unusual activity prevails at the present, thus indicating preparations for a large volume of fall business. From the port of New York, for example, the exports for the week ending June 16, were $5,497,000 as against $3,965,813 for the corresponding week last year. The imports for week before last were $9,432,296 as against $6,565,496 for the same period last year. By itself, this import showing would be disagreeable, as indicating over-trading,—but for several weeks previous the exports over-balanced the imports. Taking the year, our imports were $226,647,911 as against $237,280,986,—a decline of nearly $11,000,000; while our exports amounted to $150,601,911, as against $115,089,417 the previous year. This makes an improved showing to the amount of nearly $46,000,000. Our crop prospect is improving, while that of Europe is declining. Enough is now known to render it quite certain that Europe will be glad to get our surplus of breadstuffs. The report is that the English crop will hardly average that of last season—not a good one. France will produce an unusually good crop, Germany an average one, while Russia and Hungary (the former on account of dry weather) will not yield their usually large surplus crop; so that there seems little doubt that England must call upon this country to supply her deficiency to a larger extent than usual, and prices there will regulate the price here. Thus the various conditions favorable to a good fall trade are palpably at work.

THE Republicans of Minnesota have been as fortunate in the construction of their platform as they were in the selection of their Gubernatorial candidate. They have fairly embodied the pith of the demands of the farmers, in a form not necessarily obnoxious to the railroad corporations. In place of the blind abolition of discriminations, of which Illinois furnishes an example, they have declared in favor of cheap transportation, according to capital invested in railroads the right of reasonable remuneration, but opposing unjust discriminations and all arbitrary and improper uses of the growing power of railroad and other corporations. They declare that no rights should be vested in railroad corporations beyond the power of future Legislatures. We commend this to the members of our Constitutional Convention. The distinction between mere discriminations and over-charges can be readily made, and easily provided for. This is done in the resolutions of the Minnesota Republicans. We do not believe, for a moment, that there is any one so unreasonable as to require railroad companies to do business at a loss. Nor is it desired that rates shall be so adjusted as to be uniform, those for short being the same as those for long distances, and competition kept up. If local freight rates are put down to the same figure as through rates, loss ensues, which is injustice to the railroads. If through rates are increased, business will be lost, and local ratei must be increased, which is an injury both to railroads and people. But that every possible advantage shall be afforded local towns, consistent with the legitimate prosperity of the railroads, is right. This should be strongly insisted upon. But all discrimination cannot be abolished.

THE METHODIST CENTENNIAL.

The First Annual Conference of Methodist Preachers in America was held in Philadelphia on the 14th, 15th and 16th of July, 1773. At the late session of the Conferences, in the Spring, embracing the section of country over which the preachers of that day traveled, committees were appointed to arrange for the celebration of of the one hundredth anniversary of that important event, and it was directed that the general sessions of the Commemorative Celebration should be held in St. George's Church, Philadelphia, the same building where the Conference met in 1773. As the Conference was called for July, 1773, and some were present on that day, but owing to the absence of others, did not transact any business, it was decided to recommend that the assembling of the Conference be commemorated in all Methodist churches of the land on Sabbath, July 13, 1873

Captain Thomas Webb, who was with General Wolfe at the taking of Quebec in 1758, where he lost his right eye, over which he afterwards wore a green shade, was the first Methodist who preached in Philadelphia. After the taking of Quebec, Captain Webb returned to England, and was converted under the preaching of Rev. John Wesley, about 1765, and soon became a local preacher. In 1766 he again returned to this country, and was stationed at Albany, N. Y., and aided Philip Emburg in building a church in New York. Captain Webb first visited Philadelphia in 1767, and commenced preaching in a sail-loft, near Dock Creek, on the Delaware river, and formed a class of seven persons.

In 1763 a German Reformed congregation erected a building on Fourth street, but they were not able to finish it, and becoming embarrassed, it was purchased by the Methodist Society in 1769 or 1770, and was known thereafter by the name of St. George's. It was plainly fitted up and occupied thereafter instead of the sail-loft. When Howe's army entered Philadelphia in 1777, this house was occupied by a portion of it, and much of the interior was destroyed. In fact it was turned into a stable by the army. It is said that for nearly fifty years it was the largest place of worship that the Methodists had in America. The venerable building still stands, and is in a very good state of preservation. It was remodeled in 1837, and the roof was destroyed by fire in 1865, and is but little changed from its original condition, except the front, and portions of the audience room.

Tablets of stone on both sides of the pulpit contain the names of the pastors of the church, from 1769 to 1869. The list contains the names of one hundred and ten preachers. In early times some of the preachers were changed once in three and six months, afterwards one year was the time of service, then two years, and now a three years' pastorate is the outside limit allowed a Methodist minister to the same church. During the first fifteen years of St. George, about thirty ministers preached in that church, such as Boardman, Pilmoor, Asbury and Wright sent to this country by Mr. Wesley, Dr. Coke, Whatcoat, Webb, William King and others.

In this list, some of the greatest minds of the Church officiated as pastors. First, Joseph Pilmoor, in 1769, who afterwards returned to England, and became an Episcopal minister. Returned to Philadelphia he died rector of an Episcopal church in Third street, Philadelphia, where he lies buried under the floor of the church. Then, Richard Boardman, who was sent with Pilmoor, by Mr. Wesley, was pastor. Next Asbury, who became Bishop, and Richard Wright, both sent to this country by Mr. Wesley. Thomas Rankin and George Shadford, also appointed to this country by Mr. Wesley, appear in the order named as pastors. Among the list of pastors, who were afterwards elected Bishops, were the following: Francis Asbury, Richard Whatcoat, Robert R. Roberts and Levi Scott. Dr. Coke preached in St. George's, while Bishop John Dickens, the first book agent, was stationed there, and also Ezekiel Cooper, the successor of Dickins, as book agent. Dr. Martin Reuter, the first missionary to Texas, who gave his life a sacrifice in that work, was a pastor. Charles Pitman, deceased, the eloquent Missionary Secretary in early times; Dr. J. Holdich, now the efficient Secretary of the American Bible Society, and George G. Cookman, lost on the Atlantic, were pastors of this time-honored church.

Immediately in front of the church, Ezekiel Cooper, the second book agent, lies buried, after a ministry of sixty-three years, aged eighty-four. In the rear, almost behind the pulpit, are the remains of John Dickens, the first book agent, who died Sept. 27, 1798, aged fifty-two. Quite a number of ministers and others are buried in the ground around the building. The Bible in the pulpit, formerly in use, was printed at Oxford, England, by the printers to the University, in 1770.

During last week, the centennial exercises commemorative of the organization referred to, took place. Papers relating to every prominent phase of Church work were read, by eminent ministers, and the proceedings were very interesting. This fixes the regular organization of American Methodism, so far the holding of an Annual Conference may be said to embody such an event, at about three years prior to the Declaration of American Independence. Singularly, too, both events took place in the same city. Thus Philadelphia was, in a sense, the birthplace of a religious denomination, as well as of American liberty. The halo of a pure glory gathers around the Quaker City.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

MORE than 4,000 people were married in San Francisco last year, and yet only 249 were sent to the lunatic asylum.

THE National Photographic Association, which has been in session in Buffalo, has adjourned, to meet in Chicago on the second Tuesday in July, 1874.

A MINERAL spring has been discovered in Nebraska of such curative powers that dilapidated ladies, after quaffing it for a week, find no further use for cotton.

SEVERAL important tax records of Brooklyn are missing, and are believed to have been removed by some of the late Ring to cover up former irregularities.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., is now receiving her coal for making gas from Pennsylvania, the new tariff of the Illinois Central not justifying the using of Duquoin coal.

THE flooring of the Presbyterian Church at Hudson City, New Jersey, gave way during an entertainment on Thursday night, and forty children were injured, some seriously.

A VIENNA special states that Hiram Garretson, of Cleveland, Ohio, appointed Chief American Commissioner in place of Jackson Shultz, resigned, has entered upon his duties.

THERE will soon be a plentiful supply of postal cards. The manufacturers are now shipping between seven and eight hundred thousand daily, and expect to increase the number to a million.

THE schooner Pauline, with a cargo of shingles and dressed lumber from New Orleans to Indianola, went ashore on Galveston Island in the storm of the 17th inst., having lost her deck load and rudder.

D. CHAUNCEY has been appointed receiver of the Brooklyn Trust Company. Some of the Directors state that the deposits will be paid in full, and probably something be left for the stockholders.

THE locomotive returns from fifty-one railways, for November, 1872, published in the Railroad Gazette, show an average expense of $22 13 a mile for each locomotive; 2,682 locomotives were employed, and they traveled a distance of 6,958,616 miles.

A GIRL in South Carolina ate a poisoned crow, was thrown into convulsions, fell into the fire, was badly burned, had a leg amputated in consequence, and is now convalescent, but doesn't "hanker after crow" as much as she did formerly.

AN agriculturist has discovered an insect that will destroy the potato-bug. The only objection to the new bug is that it bores into the potato to lay in wait for the other bug. The consequence is that the potato still suffers. The gentleman hopes, however, to discover another bug that will destroy the bug that destroys the potato-bug.

IT is stated that the personal accounts of E. S. Mills, late President of the Brooklyn Trust Company, who was drowned at Coney Island last Tuesday morning, shows that he has overdrawn one hundred thousand dollars, and that he has allowed the loaning of over three hundred thousand dollars of the funds of that institution upon doubtful securities.

THE Central Pacific Railroad Company are shown by the San Francisco Bulletin to owe $108,000,683. The last year, ending June 30, their net earnings were $5,056,433. Part of their indebtedness consists of unpaid interest, and it is asserted that, notwithstanding this insolvency, the Directors allow $600,000 a year of their earnings to be swallowed up dishonestly by private speculators.

THE movement looking toward the formation of a new State out of North Mississippi, West Tennessee, and Western Kentucky is being discussed with considerable animation by the newspapers published in the section illustrated. A convention is to be held at Jackson on the 29th inst., when delegates are to be present from every town, city, and civil district within the limits of the proposed new State. The general sentiment seems to be in favor of the movement.

THE Prohibitory Law has met with the usual fatality in Rhode Island. The Supreme Court has declared about one hundred complaints against liquor-sellers for single sales, to be null and void, for want of averment that the liquor sold was not liquor of foreign importation under the United States revenue laws. This would seem to make a hole in the statute through which a coach and four can at any time be driven, for how is the Government to show whether the main ingredient of a cock-tail was imported or not?

LAST Thursday the parents of Utica V. Brooker called on a lawyer and said they had reason to believe that their daughter, who died July 9th, had been poisoned, and that they suspected a physician who attended her of being guilty of the alleged murder, with the knowledge and connivance of Col Blood. Mrs. Woodhull and Miss Claflin stated that the circumstances of their sister's death were suspicious, but refused to join in the story of the poisoning. The lawyer declined to institute an inquiry before the Grand Jury.

GENERAL QUESADO, brother-in-law of President Cespedes, and confidential agent of the Cuban Republic, arrived in New York on Friday, bearing dispatches to the Columbian Minister at Washington concerning Cuban independence. He states that fifteen hundred troops have been promised from Mexico, and that Peru will probably soon render assistance. Arrangements are being made for holding at Washington a conference of representatives from all the South American Republics to promote Cuban independence.

WE had in our hand and examined yesterday a new trade dollar, clear and bright, just as it fell from the die at the Mint. We confess we do not see much to admire in the matter of taste on the date side. The full length figure, to our view, is inartistic, and not symmetrical with the face of the coin. The eagle side is much better, being better covered, and the words "420 grains, 900 fine," is a piece of practical information, we believe, entirely new to our coinage. As a new coin it was in eager demand as pocket-pieces and mementoes at 130, the Mint value being 120.—Phila. Ledger.

THE Committee of Management of the Bureau Veritas has just published the list of maritime disasters, reported during the month of May, 1873 concerning all flags. This list gives the number of sailing vessels totally lost at 123, viz., 41 English, 16 German, 14 French, 12 Italian, 6 Norwegian, 6 Austrian, 6 American, 4 Dutch, 4 Danish, 3 Spanish, 2 Greek, 2 Swedish, 1 Brazilian, 1 Oriental Republic, 1 Russian, 1 Turk, and 4 of which the flag was not reported. In the total number are included 16 sailing vessels reported missing. There were 10 steamers totally lost, viz., 6 English, 3 American, and 1 Italian.

ONE of the results of the recent great advance in the price of coal in Europe, is visible in the fact that various large manufacturers in France, Germany and Russia, are casting about for new sources of supply. They think it feasible to import Pennsylvania coal, and an analysis of the different kinds mined in this State is being made, with a view of ascertaining whether they are suitable for use in the foreign factories needing them. Already Pennsylvania has been able to undersell English coal in the West and East India markets, and it looks very much as if we might, to a certain extent, be able to compete with European coal in portions of Europe itself.

F. C. CAPREOL, ESQ, President of the Huron & Ontario Ship Canal Company, has addressed a letter on the subject of cheap freights to the Governors of the several Western States, and invited them to a conference on that subject, with reference especially to the enterprise which he represents, to meet in Chicago on the 22d of July—to-morrow. The Governors of Illinois and Minnesota have accepted the invitation to be present, and several others, whose replies have not yet come to hand, will doubtless put in an appearance. The subject is one of great importance to the productive interests of the Northwest.

POLITICAL NOTES.

HON. SAMUEL HENRY, of Ebensburg, was at Bedford Springs last week, and is making a very active canvass for the Republican nomination for State Treasurer.

THE Harrisburg Patriot wants Frederick Lauer, the great Reading beer man, for State Treasurer. His business has made him well acquainted with vaults, but whether he would keep money in them as safely as he does beer is the question.—Philadelphia Press.

THE Scranton (Pa.) Republican says the friends of the Hon. William Britter, of Chester county, are pressing his claims vigorously upon the Republicans of nearly every part of the State for the nomination of Judge of the Supreme Court, and are undoubtedly gaining strength every day.

THE Washington Chronicle doubts the truth of the report that either Senator Conkling or Senator Howe will be appointed to the Chief Justiceship, and says: "The leading lawyers of the country seem pretty generally to still adhere to the conviction that Justice Samuel F. Miller ought to be promoted to this high position. While attending the funeral of the late Chief Justice, and repeatedly since, Reverdy Johnson, who ranks among the leaders of the bar of the country, made no secret of his opinion that Justice Miller ought to be appointed to this vacancy."

THE Venango Citizen says that for the Republican nomination for Supreme Judge, "Hon. I. G. Gordon, of Jefferson, is undoubtedly the choice of Western Pennsylvania, and he will also receive strong support from the central and northern portion of the State. His chances just now look flattering. In the east, Judge Butler, of Chester, and Judge Paxson, of Philadelphia, are named for the position. Great opposition is manifested by the lawyers of the State against Paxon. They do not consider him competent for the Supreme Bench. The combination which was reported to have been made to secure his nomination has been disfolved, and there is every prospect that the Convention will be permitted to make nominations for State officers without the assistance or manipulation of rings."

WOOL IN OHIO.

COUNTIES around Muskingum have sold this year's clip of wool from 40 to 42 cents per pound.—Zanesville Courier.

THE Akron Beacon says that a considerable amount of wool has already been bought in that city this season. The extreme prices paid per pound are from 38 to 45 cents.

WOOL is beginning to go in this county at 42 cents. Whether or not it will reach 45 cents is a question of some doubt, buyers being divided in opinion.—Cambridge News.

THE wool trade is rather dull in this vicinity. We notice that several good sized clips have been delivered to buyers in Uhrichsville during the past few days. The ruling price is 40 to 45 cents per pound.—Tuscarawas Chronicle.

THE wool market in this county still "drags its slow length along." In other words it is not lively. Probably not more than 30,000 or 40,000 pounds have been bought in this market. The price paid has generally ranged between 40 and 45 cents per pound. One clip of 78 fleeces, 6 pounds each, sold for 35 cents per pound. This, with 250,000 pounds of old wool in the county, cannot be called "lively."—Cadiz Republican, July 3.

PERSONAL.

THE Empress Carlota's condition has changed; for better or worse is not stated.

LONG JOHN WENTWORTH owns 7,000 acres of land within twelve miles of the Chicago Court House.

IDA LEWIS, the Newport heroine, has secured the divorce from her husband which she has been seeking.

REPORT will have it that Henry Clews, the banker, is to marry Miss Worthington, niece of Secretary Belknap.

THE Hon. Asa Packer, of Pennsylvania, has given $1,000,000 and fifty-six acres of land to the Lehigh University.

MADAME ANNA BISHOP gave a farewell concert in the Mormon Tabernacle at Salt Lake City on the 4th instant.

JAMES FISK, SR., father of the late James Fisk, Jr., is at Sparta, Wis., undergoing a course of mineral waters for apoplexy.

MISS AKROYD, having quarreled with Baboo Keshub Chunder Sen, and thereby lost the sympathy of Brahmo Somaj, has failed in her attempt to establish a Hindoo Female Boarding School in Calcutta.

SENATOR CAMERON and Messrs. Wayne M'Veagh, J. R. Eby, Henry M'Cormick, F. W. Hall, William Colder, W. F. Hildrup, James Crawford and other Harrisburgers are at Bedford Springs. The number of guests at the hotel and the resort is 250.

RALPH BOWLES, a graduate of Trinity College, and son of the Baptist clergyman at Greenbush, N. Y., has, with the full approval of his father, been confirmed in the Episcopal Church. Within a few weeks past Frederick C. Jewell, son of the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Greenbush, has been received by the Rev. Dr. Clover in communion with the Church of the Messiah at that place, and more recently the Rev. Dr. Jewell himself has, much to the regret of his people, resigned his pastorate and become a member of the same Church.

MISS MARGARET F. BUCHANAN, the Chicago editress, has had her say on the commencements, and is severe upon the dress question. She says: "These girl-graduates, who can draw plans of the siege of Troy; who can scan Homer and sing Anacreon to genuine Greek melodies; who ridicule sum pius Æneas and conceive infelix Dido to have had considerable putty in her head for such a mental fop to have made so much impression on—these radical, progressive, learned, courageous, nay, defiant, girl-graduates stood before the public as —Dressmakers' Monuments. The dressmaker is the natural foe of progressive womanhood. It is not prophecy to say that, while the dressmaker endures, women will not vote."

THE ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

Letter from Dr. Petermann to the American Geographical Society—"The Highest Scientific Results Accomplished Since Many Centuries"—His Estimate of Captain Hall—Not So Bad for the Polaris After All.

(From the N. Y. Herald.)

Dr. Strasnecky has placed at our disposal the following highly interesting letter from Dr. Petermann, the eminent German geographer—probably the first living authority on Polar explorations:

EDITORIAL ROOMS OF THE MITTHEILUNGEN, FROM JUSTUS PERTHE'S GEOGRAPHICAL
ESTABLISHMENT, GOTHA, June 21, 1873.

MUCH ESTEEMED FRIEND:

After having received, on the 12th inst., your elegant and interesting journal, for the sending of which I am greatly obliged to you, I received yesterday your valued letter and remittance of the 20th inst. I now take the liberty to place my reply to Miss Cantini also in your hands. The news of your North Pole expedition has created an extraordinary sensation, and it appears to me that it was very desirable food for a sensation craving press and public. The ice-drift is a not uncommon occurrence in all ice regions, whether at the North Pole or among the Alps. Of the many previous and similar ice-drifts that have not, however, been of any particular value to science, we have those of De Haven, McClintock and the German expedition. The glaciers of the Alps, which run into the valley, also bring down hats, knapsacks and all sorts of objects. This latest drift of the American expedition is, however, the longest that has so far been known, and, therefore, the most remarkable. As to the death of Captain Hall, it is necessary to wait for the judicial examination of those who have returned, and for the evidence of the men who have remained on the vessel at Northumberland Inlet, before giving a final opinion regarding the geographical results of the expedition. They appear to me of extraordinary value, for the ship has not only, as it appears, gone in the very first Spring, and without much trouble, as far as 82 degrees 16 minutes north latitude—that is, further than any vessel ever reached land—and about four degrees (240 miles) beyond the point attained by the heroic Kane, but the most interesting and valuable observations of all sorts have been made. As at the departure of the expedition much stress was laid on its prospect of reaching the North Pole, the public at large, which has no idea of the difficulties surrounding the solution of geographical problems, might look upon it as a complete failure. It should not be made a reproach to Captain Hall that he held out such a prospect, for without it he would not probably have obtained either ship or money or any other support. Placed in a similar position the same thing has happened to me and my friends in Germany, and it will always remain thus as long as the civilized governments of the world devote their millions principally to the increase of their armies, and the scientific objects only figure in the budget for the crumbs, and as long as the people who are willing to add to the little knowledge we have of our own earth have to go begging for small contributions. To me the geographical results of the expedition appear of an extraordinary value. At any rate they are the highest that any vessel among the numerous expeditions of all nations to the North and South poles have ever accomplished since many centuries. I shall speak of the subject at greater length in my next Arctic report (No. 89). Should, however, my views in any way appear of value to you they are placed at your disposal for publication. With much respect, yours truly.

A. PETERMANN.

Professor E. R. Strasnecky, Recording Secretary American Geographical Society.

FERNANDO WOOD'S DOG.

A Curious Case—How Caleb Cushing Claims $4,000 Damages.

A suit of a novel description has been entered before the District Courts in Washington City, by Caleb Cushing. A neighbor of his has a dog which keeps up an incessant barking both day and night, very much to the annoyance of this distinguished gentleman. He claims that it disturbs his rest at night and very materially interferes with his studies and the transaction of business during the day; that both his health and his professional duties suffer thereby, and he asks that damages be awarded him to the amount of $4,000 against the owner of the dog. Though the case may seem somewhat amusing, it contains the important point as to whether any person can keep an animal, even within his own enclosed property, which, by its noise, interferes with the peace and comfort of the neighborhood. The decision, therefore, is looked for with something of interest, by the quiet and sleep-loving people of Washington, and should the veteran lawyer and diplomatist win his case, it will be but the precursor of many more suits of a similar character, unless the owners of the howling and barking nuisances should take warning from the verdict, and so effectually muzzle the animals as to prevent any more complaints. It will be a queer compliment to Cushing for the Washingtonians hereafter to remember him in connection with "the dog days." It appears that the nominal defendant, Mr. Kelley, is in charge of Fernando Wood's residence, and the dog is the property of the New York Representative. Before drawing up his complaint Mr. Cushing consulted with a well-known Spanish barrister, who sustains intimate professional relations with Mr. Cushing, and who advised him that in Spain both the law and the administration of justice at all times afforded ample protection to the subject in such cases, so that both by the civil and the common law Mr. Cushing deems his case complete. Mr. Kelly relies upon a paid-up corporation license to justify his retention of the dog.

TENDER RECOLLECTIONS.

"The Blue and the Gray."

The tender recollections which where revived by Decoration Day still appear in the press of the Southern States. Occasionally we meet with noble words which should be caught up and repeated, North and South. The Richmond Enquirer, for example, speaking of the brave General W. H. Lytle, of Ohio, killed while attempting to reinforce General Thomas, in 1863, uses the following language:

He was killed, far in advance of his command while gallantly leading an assault upon our lines. His horse bore his corpse into our lines, and the steed and his dead rider were both captured. So soon as it was known that the author of that rare poem, as familiar and as greatly admired South as North, "I am dying, Egypt, dying," lay dead in the camp, officers and men crowded around to take a last look at the face of the poet soldier who had achieved so great a literary triumph. There was no rejoicing over the death of this fallen enemy; but there was in truth something on each soldier's cheek that for the moment washed away the stains of powder. Tenderly they took him up, and when the battle was over an escort of honor, appointed from among the leading Confederate officers, bore him back to his own camp, under a flag of truce, on a rudely constructed funeral bier, with his martial cloak around him. In life he had touched that chord of human sympathy which makes all the world kin—and in death its harmonious vibrations silenced all resentment, and thrilled the hearts alike of friends and foes with a nobler passion than hate or revenge.

Dr. Mary Walker.

The New York Daily Graphic says:—"We gave a statement of the case of the so-called Dr. Mary Walker, from the pen of a Washington correspondent; but we wish to say in connection with the subject, that it is about time this unfortunate, demented creature was put in some asylum for idiots and lunatics. She has long been a nuisance, even to the fantastic people who are supposed to share her views—such as they are. She belongs to that class of which Daniel Pratt, the Great American Traveler, and a host of similar nuisances, are noted examples—aggressive, loud, empty-pated, voluble impostors, all of them. There is no reason in the world why a woman, because she is a woman, and is noted for nothing but unwomanly and half-crazy freaks, should have any special attention paid to her above what is paid to any other half-demented person, not having her trick of foisting themselves upon public attention. Doctor Mary Walker would be a very proper person in a lunatic asylum or an idiots' infirmary; but all who know her must be aware of her extreme unfitness for any government position. General Spinner's action in this, as in some other instances, shows him to be a man of erratic notions, rather than of sound judgment. If he insists upon the appointment, the Secretary ought to assign him the pseudo-doctor as an office companion—an arrangement which would very speedily cure the General of his predilection for this singularly disagreeable woman."

Why Do Consumptives Die?

The first blow against any enemy with which we have to contend is always an important one; hence the consumptive who puts off to a distant day the necessary treatment to effect a cure, will not only lose valuable time, but will also incur the risks of a fatal termination. Yet ever since the introduction of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure this hitherto fatal disease is shorn of more than half its terrors. The reason then why consumptives die, may be found in the fact that they do not begin the treatment early enough. The disease has oftentimes made sad ravages in the lung tissue before any treatment, sul able to a cure has been instituted, and we need not marvel, such being the case at the many fatal terminations. If you look for a cure begin in time. Do not wait until the other vital organs have felt the baneful influence of the lung malady. Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure has cured very many bad cases, and should a cure be possible will always effect it, but that does not furnish grounds for criminal neglect, when a remedy of such great power is so easily obtainable. Dr. Keyser is a regularly educated physician and has given to the world in his Lung Cure, a boon of priceless value, not only in consumption, but in a score of chronic maladies which have been the source of much individual suffering and the bane of many a household. The Doctor's treatise should be read by all. It may be had by addressing Dr. Keyser, at his principal office, 167 Liberty St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

ORDINANCES.

AN ORDINANCE—Authorizing certain changes to be made in the contract between the City of Pittsburgh and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, dated the 24th day of December, A. D. 1872.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That so much of the contract dated the 24th day of December, 1872, between the City of Pittsburgh and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company as requires the erection of a bridge between Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth streets, and at Thirty-third street, be and the same is hereby annulled, so far as said city is concerned, upon the express condition, however, that the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company consent thereto and fully comply with the terms and conditions hereinafter fully set forth:

SEC. 2. That the Pennsylvania Railroad Company shall erect an iron foot bridge at Twenty-eighth street, at a suitable elevation over their tracks; the same to be proceeded with at once, and completed in a good and substantial manner as soon as practicable; the approach to this bridge on the north side to be on Twenty-eighth street, at a convenient distance from said bridge.

SEC. 3. That the said Company shall erect an iron roadway bridge over their tracks at Thirtieth street, of the same width and character as the bridges named in the contract heretofore entered into between said Company and the city, and the City of Pittsburgh hereby covenants and agrees to lay out and open, without expense to said Company, a street from Thirty-third street, on the south side of their tracks, to connect with said bridge at Thirtieth street, the said Company to grade said street when laid out, at its own cost and expense, not however to be liable for any damages resulting to property owners from the opening and grading of said street. The approaches on the north side to said bridge shall be of the same grade at that fixed in the contract heretofore entered into between the city of Pittsburgh and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and shall be made by way of Twenty-ninth street and Sassafras alley, from the west, and by way of Thirty-first street and Sassafras alley from the east, and all the cost pertaining to the making of said approaches shall be borne by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. When said Thirtieth street bridge and approaches shall be completed and ready for public use, then so much of Thirty-third street as intervenes between the south line of the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and Laurel avenue shall become vacated, and shall thereupon forthwith cease to be a public highway.

SEC. 4. That the bridge heretofore provided for in the contract between the city of Pittsburgh and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Ellsworth avenue, shall be constructed over the tracks of said Company on the line of said avenue, and not as provided for in said contract; Provided that the Commissioners of Ellsworth avenue shall bear any additional expense resulting from the change hereby made for the construction of said bridge, and that said additional expense, if any, shall not in any way be chargeable to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

SEC. 5. The said contract heretofore entered into between the City of Pittsburgh and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, shall continue in all respects as originally made, except as to the changes herein provided for.

SEC. 6. That the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh is hereby authorized and directed to enter into a written contract on behalf of said city, with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, embodying the provisions and conditions herein set forth, which contract when duly executed by said parties, shall be deposited with the said Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh. jy15

DAILY GAZETTE.

FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, July 19, 1873.

The week has again closed on a quiet money market. The supply continues large, and the demand was small for temporary uses, consequently there was all the time a full supply at bank as well as at the better class of brokers, awaiting good paper. The best business paper is readily negotiated at from 8 to 10 per cent. Very little paper is making in trade circles, because of the limited amount of business doing and of that little making still less is offered for discount. Those making sales on time find it most profitable and not inconvenient to carry their paper to maturity. Local securities are quiet, and the same remark will apply to real estate matters just now.

The New York bank statement for the week is as follows:

Loans, increase	$1,763,600
Specie, decrease	2,384,400
Legal tenders, increase	542,600
Deposits, increase	1,289,500

There is no change in Philadelphia financial affairs. Rates are easy. Money is abundant and likely to continue so for the next month, at least. Lenders complain of low rates and difficulty of placing funds. There is no remedy for it but patience. In another month business will begin to revive; it will then be as difficult to obtain loans as it now is to place them.

Business at the St. Louis banks is comparatively quiet, and the feeling continues easy and comfortable, with loanable funds in excellent supply, while the demand for money was rather light than otherwise. Rates were easy and unchanged at 8 and 10 ⅌ cent ⅌ annum. Call at 6 to 8 ⅌ cent. First class borrowers with good security find no difficulty in securing all the accommodations they may need, but the banks scrutinize all outside paper very closely.

The Boston monetary situation admits of but little comment, the tone of the market remaining quiet and unchanged. There is undoubtedly more first class mercantile paper offering at 7 ⅌ cent., but there seems to be a commensurate increase in the demand, and note brokers generally report an active business in prime grades. On call the supply of loanable funds continues abundant at 6 ⅌ cent.

The Chicago banks are, as a rule, supplied with abundance of money, and yet it does not come out freely to meet the demands of money-borrowers usually considered good. Consequently, there is a good deal of paper offered in the open market at from 12 to 15 ⅌ cent. Much of this is made by merchants in good standing, but who are perhaps obliged to be large borrowers, partly on account of the disappointment in the spring trade, and, in some cases, because their business is a good deal expanded.

The business at the Baltimore Stock Board continues active. Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is held at 175, preferred 160 bid, Northern Central 36¾, 39 asked; Parkersburg Branch held at 11, and City Passenger at 18¾, wanted at 16¾. We note the following transactions in Railroad bonds: 8,000 Northern Central gold sold at 90½; 2,000 Marietta and Cincinnati 2ds at 91, 5,000 Pittsburgh and Connellsville at 93¾, a decline of ¼, and 1,000 Orange and Alexandria 1st 7s at 93¾. Baltimore and Ohio 1875s were in demand at 97, 1880s at 96¾, 97 asked. Pittsburgh and Connellsville 2ds at 70, 80 asked.

NEW YORK, July 19, 1873.

Money closed easy at 3 per cent. Sterling was quiet at 109¼@109½ for sixty days and 110⅛@110¼ for sight. The imports for the week were $6,530,355, of which $4,273,599 were merchandise and $2,256,757 dry goods. Customs receipts to-day $273,000. Gold was quiet and firm at 115⅞@116¼, closing at 116. Loans were 1 to 3 per cent. for carrying. Clearings $39,000,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $261,000. The exports for the week were nearly $5,000,000. Governments were dull and steady. State bonds were dull and nominal. Stocks were active and strong. A corner in Erie was the special feature, dealings having been very large. The opening sales were at 58⅝, but later the price reached 65½, changes between these figures having been frequent. The difference between cash and regular stock was from ¼ to 1 per cent., with an active demand during the afternoon. The remainder of the list was strong and higher on larger business, the chief features being Western Union, Lake Shore, New York Central, Union Pacific and Wabash. The entire market closed buoyant at about the best prices of the day. The Post says: "It is generally reported that we shall have a rising market next week, with some, if not all, of the above stocks as features." Both the Express and Commercial attribute the engineering of the Erie corner to German bankers. The Post, in its latest edition, contradicted its statement made earlier in the day that Drew manipulated the corner in Erie, and says: "It is very well understood that nearly all the stock is held in Europe, principally in London. Since the recent election there has been a disposition to sell stock on the part of English holders, and they have—the price being higher here than in London—sent over orders to sell in this market. Their brokers have executed their orders, selling in advance of the arrival of the stock, and trusting to their ability to borrow it for deliveries from day to day. The result is that those few German banking firms who held Erie here availed themselves of the situation and refused to lend their stock or to sell it except at high prices. They have the power and probably will keep the corner up until the steamers arrive having on board the Erie stock recently shipped here from London."

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY July 19, 1873.

The general markets continue quiet, as is nearly always the case at this particular time. The demand for all of the leading articles is confined mainly to supplying immediate wants, as there is almost an entire absence of anything like speculation, yet there is a fair volume of business in the aggregate. Flour and Grain markets are moderately active, and if anything, the feeling is a shade firmer than it was last week, but there is no quotable advance in prices. The grocery trade is firmer and more active, and Sugars are still tending upward. There is a steady demand for Butter, Eggs, Cheese, and in fact for all kinds of country produce. Hay is worth almost as much now as at any time this year, in consequence of a temporary scarcity.

APPLES—Sales reported at $3 to $5 ⅌ barrel, according to quality and condition.

BUTTER—Prime to choice butter is in steady demand, with sales at 18@20; common stock continues dull.

CHEESE—Is reported steady, and as the receipts recently have been small, stocks are considerably reduced; we continue to quote prime Ohio Factory at 11 cents to the trade, and 12c in a jobbing way.

COUNTRY BACON—Clear Sides quotable at 7@7½, no demand whatever for Shoulders or Hams. Country Lard, 7@7½.

DRIED FRUIT—Prime halve Peaches quoted at 8@9 in small lots, and Apples at 3½@5, as to quality.

EGGS—Market is quiet and unchanged, 18 to 20 cents.

FLOUR—There is a very fair local trade, but no change whatever in prices, which range from $6.75@7.25 for fair to choice spring wheat flours, and $8@8.50 for red winter.

GRAIN—There is considerable inquiry for prime red winter Wheat, and there is little or no stock in this market, except what is held by the mills; prices remain unchanged, however, $1.45@1.55, for common to prime. The Oat market is steady, if anything, a firmer feeling prevails, but prices remain unchanged; mixed, 43@44; prime white, 45@46. Shelled Corn is in light supply, but there is not much inquiry for it 53@54 on track and 55@56 in elevator. Ear Corn is scarce, and there is some inquiry for it: may be quoted at 55@57. There is little or no Rye in this market at present, and there is some call for it; in the absence of sales, we continue former quotations, 75@80.

GROCERIES—There is more doing in Sugars, and the market is firm with a continued upward tendency. Coffees are also firmer under the influence of recent advices from the seaboard, and the situation at present is favorable for sellers. Molasses and Syrups continue quiet and unchanged—there will no doubt be an improved demand for this character of goods as soon as the weather gets cooler.

SUGARS—Patent Cut Loaf, 12½c; Crushed, Granulated and Powdered, 11¾; Standard A, 10¾; B: 10½; Ex. C, 10⅛c; C. Yellow, 10⅛; Circle C, 10⅛. Lower grades, 9@10.

COFFEE—Choice Rio, 25; Good to Prime, 22½@23½c, fair 23@21½c. Old Government Java, 28c; other Javas, 26@27c. Roasted Rio, 1 lb packages, 28c; loose, 27½c. Roasted Java, 33½.

HAY—The market is steady, but prices remain unchanged. Baled is still quotable at $24@28, as to quality, and the receipts by river are increasing.

ONIONS—May be quoted at $4.50@5.50 per brl., according to quality.

POTATOES—Sales at $6.00 to $7 ⅌ brl, according to quality.

POULTRY—Young or Spring chickens are quotable at 50 to 65 cents, and old ones at 70 to 80 per pair, according to size.

PROVISIONS—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, ⅌ lb. 16c., Ex. Sugar Cured Shoulders, 11; Sugar cured Breakfast Bacon, 13c. Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, 19½c. Beef tongues, $7.50 ⅌ dozen. Bacon Shoulders, per lb, 9⅛c. Bacon Rib Sides, 10¼c. Bacon Short Rib Sides 11c. Bacon Clear Rib Sides, 11¼c. Mess Pork, $18 00 per barrel. Refined Lard for summer use, in tres, 10c. Do. half bbls, 10¼c. Do. bkts 11¼c. Do. in 3 lb. caddies, 12¼c. Do. in 5 lb. 12¼c; Do. in 3 lb. pails 12½c ⅌ pound. Do. in 6 lb. pails, 13.

RAGS—Quoted at 3½@3¾c.

SEEDS—Flax Seed is in demand at $2.10@2.12½. Seed Buckwheat is quoted at $1.50@1.75 ⅌ bu.

WHISKY—Highwines quotable at 94@95c per gallon.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, EAST LIBERTY, SATURDAY, July 19, 1873.

CATTLE.

The market for cattle during the week which has closed, was an active one, and while there was no quotable change in prices, the general feeling and tendency was in favor of sellers. Trade opened brisk on Monday, and from that up until Wednesday, about everything offered met with ready sale—selling just about as fast as it arrived, and at full prices; on the day in question, however, cattle came in freely, and buyers taking advantage of it, succeeding in forcing a slight reduction, say from 10 to 15c per cwt.; on Thursday, the arrivals having slacked off, there was a firmer feeling developed again, the decline was recovered, and from that until the close, all the cattle put on sale were picked up quickly and at full prices. The arrivals yesterday and to-day, excepting of through consignments, were small, and the supply, notwithstanding there were but few buyers, was scarcely equal to the demand; consequently, the market closes firm, and the prices prevailing early in the week at the opening, were fully sustained—in other words, cattle brought just as much money to-day, taking the quality into consideration, as they did on Monday or Tuesday. The selling interest has had two very good markets in succession, something unusual of late, which may be attributed mainly to the large falling off in the offerings, not only here but elsewhere, and the general impression seems to be that this will continue for two or three weeks to come, or until after harvest; if so, we may look for a continued stiff market, but if, on the other hand, they should commence to come in freely again, a reaction will undoubtedly be the result, and very likely the advance established last week would be partially if not altogether lost. There was not a single bullock, so far as we could learn, bought for New York; since the retirement of Julius Voetter, there are no York buyers in this market; Philadelphia took hold pretty freely, and then there was a very full attendance of country buyers, Lancaster county, being well represented, and they all bought freely—the former taking the best and the latter the common and medium stock. Prime to extra shipping steers quotable at 6¼@6⅝; four cars of prime from Southern Ohio brought the outside figure; medium to good, 5¾@6; fair, 5@5¼; common, 4@4¾. Some of the salesmen reported the quality rather better this week, and it was also alleged that the supply of local stock, or cattle intended to be sold here, was larger than last week, and that the run of through stock was comparatively light.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The market, in consequence of the arrivals having turned out larger than was expected, together with the unfavorable reports from New York, closes weak and a little off, although as compared with the former part of the week, there is no quotable change in prices. The arrivals for the week, as will be seen, show an excess of 50 cars over the week preceding, but it is well to bear in mind that a number of these were stockers, en route from the west to New Jersey, and consequently not on the market, still the supply was very much larger than last week, and but for the increased demand, prices, especially toward the close of the week, could not have been maintained. Quotations may be fairly given as follows: Extra 100 lbs. sheep, 5½; 95 lbs., 5¼; 90 lbs., 5; 80@85 lbs., 4¾@4⅞; 70@75 lbs., 4@4¼. The feeling seems to prevail among many dealers, we do not know whether it is well founded or not, that the sheep market has touched bottom, that the lowest notch has been reached, although at the same time, no immediate or permanent advance is expected, and, after all, we presume they are bringing about all they are worth when the low price of wool is taken into consideration. Lambs may be quoted at 5 to 7c, according to quality and condition.

HOGS.

The hog market was very stiff on Thursday and Friday, and prices were advanced ¼ to ⅜ of a cent ⅌ lb.; last night, however, the arrivals, although by no means heavy, were larger than was expected, and to-day the market was weak, and concessions of from 15 to 25c were made in order to effect sales. Sellers did not want to carry any over until next week, as they were apprehensive that the advance would stimulate shipments, and taking this view of the matter, we presume they acted wisely, as it is certain, in the event of increased offerings, that lower prices will be the result—in a word sellers concluded it was better to sell out to-day even if forced to make concessions, than running the risk of holding over until Monday. Prime Philadelphia hogs may be quoted at 5.40@5.45; prime light, 5.00@5.20; Yorkers, 5.25@5.33; heavy do., 5@5.10.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Manufacturers agents are fairly active, and their dealings in domestic cottons, woolens and hosiery foot up a good aggregate for the week. Cotton goods are steady for all standard and popular makes. Cotton flannels have been largely sold by agents. Fancy brown and bleached wide sheetings are reduced 2½c per yard. Medium and fine fancy cassimeres are selling freely to clothiers and cloth jobbers. The dry goods imports for the week were $2,256,767.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, July 19, 1873.

Trade, as is usually the case on Saturday, was very quiet to-day, and the market, in a general way, presented but little that is new or important. Crude was reported easier, and it was said was offered this forenoon at figures that were bid and refused yesterday; however, the general tone of the market during the past week has been toward increased strength, and, as compared with last week, prices are higher. It was offered at Parker this forenoon at $1.90, per brl., equal to 5¾c per gallon delivered here—this day week it sold at $1.80, showing an advance of 10c ⅌ brl.

Refined has been very quiet all week, but a firmer feeling has been developed, in sympathy, we presume, with the raw material, and prices, as compared with this day week, are a fraction higher: 18¾ for July, delivered in Philadelphia, 18@18½ for August or September, equal to 14¾@14¾ on cars here. Nearly all the oil sold for export has to be delivered at the seaboard; hence, there is scarcely enough doing in Pittsburgh deliveries to establish quotations. It is expected that the Western trade will open up next month, and a heavier demand is anticipated as it is probable that the unusually low price here, as in Europe, will increase the consumption.

Oil Barrels, in better supply, the arrivals by river during the past week having been large, but with a steady demand, prices are still maintained, countries, $2.15, and city make, $2.25.

The Wool Trade.

Friday's New York "World," says the movement in domestic wool has been rather light, but prices have ruled steady, and new fleeces especially might be mentioned as showing a market more or less in holders favor. One of the drawbacks to trade is the state of the market for woollen goods, which, we learn, is in an unsatisfactory condition to manufacturers. Nevertheless the higher prices for new fleeces, ruling in the growing districts, give a steady tone to the market. New fleece has been coming into this market rather slowly, but we learn that in Philadelphia there is considerable stock, with 53c the price for X and XX Ohio and Pennsylvania; in Boston there is understood to be a larger stock than here. Advices from Ohio report prices there for fleece 43@46c; from Michigan 40@44c, and from Pennsylvania and West Virginia, 45@50c with as high as 55c paid for picklock. Here prices are quoted 48@50c for X Ohio, 50@51c for XX do, 46@48c for No. 1 do, with Pennsylvania and West Virginia about the same. Michigan 48c for X. There has latterly been more new Texas arriving, and this description is quoted 22@25c for Western, and 26@33 for Eastern. New California has also been in more liberal receipt lately and is quoted 26@34, according to quality. In Montevideo wool there has been a large business on speculation, but generally foreign wool has been very quiet. Sales have embraced nearly 600,000 lbs Montevideo supposed to be at 30@32c. About 30,000 lbs. Ohio fleece, including X and above at the range of 48@50c, 45,000 lbs. Lambs California spring at 25c, 1,000 lbs fall at 23c, 4,000 lbs Eastern Texas at 31c, 10,000 lbs fine unwashed wool, and 4,000 lbs combing on private terms. Other late sales embrace: 30 bales spring California at 25@26c, 3,000 lb. do, 28; 4,000 lb. burry fall do., 17c; 7,000 lb. combing, 48c; 7,000 lb. scoured do, 45@55c; 20,000 lb. Georgia, 25c; 4,000 lb. super pulled, 43½. The following is from Boston under date July 16.

There has been a fair demand for domestic fleece, pulled and California, and the market is quite firm—the advices from abroad being quite favorable. The sales include 450,000 lbs. Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces at 47@52c, including some considerable lots to arrive; 60,000 lb New Hampshire, Maine, Wisconsin and Michigan at 45@50c, 8,000 Ohio delaine at 55c, 20,000 lb. unwashed combing at 40@45c, 32,000 do Canada combing at 57½@62½c, 20,000 do. superfine and extra pulled at 52@55c, mostly at 40@50c, 140,000 do. unwashed fleeces at 28@35½c, 13,000 do. tubbed at 52@54c, 18,000 do. scoured at 42@80c, 325,000 spring California at 24@35c, 67,000 do. Cape, Australian and Montevideo, and 24,000 do. Mestiza pulled, on private terms; and 4,000 do. Cape pulled at 47@50. By auction—66 bales Australian and Port Phillip damaged at 30@41c, and 104 bales Cape do at 25@28c ⅌ lb.

Iron Markets.

NEW YORK.—American Pig—As we noticed last week, consumers have been looking around for stock, and some trade has been effected at about the same basis of prices current for some little time back. Some of the larger companies are not offering No. 1 brands, having contracted earlier in the season for their production for some time to come. There is an ample supply of other brands, however, for all present requirements. No. 2 Iron is plenty and very irregular, according to brand. Strictly prime lots are not obtainable below $43@44, but there is considerable inferior Iron offering in the neighborhood of $40, and, we are told, at a still lower figure in Philadelphia. Forge Iron is rather quiet and without new feature of interest. Sales the past week include 600 tons of one prime brand No. 1 at $48; 400 tons, part up river brands, at $47@47; 500 tons No. 2 extra at $43@44, and 200 tons Sterling Forge, on private terms. We quote No. 1 at $47@48; No. 2, $43@44, and Gray Forge $36@38 ⅌ ton.

Scotch Pig—There has been considerable activity in Scotch Pig Iron since our last review. Dealers appear to be of the opinion that prices are about as low as they will be, and have consequently taken most of the stock offering. Glengarnock has been entirely cleaned out from first hands, and at the close we only hear of about 500 tons Eglinton left in importers hands, which is held at about $43. The stock in transit is light, the only lots coming here being brought by steamer, and as we noticed last week, the losses have been so heavy that they are now bringing stones and other articles for ballast in place of iron. About 400 tons Gartsherrie have arrived, but as yet, only 30 tons have been sold, realizing $47. The supply of Coltness is moderate and generally held at $51@52. Sales include 1,000 tons Eglinton at $42@42.50@43; 1,600 tons Glengarnock at $43@43.50, and for small lots up to $45; 600 tons Coltness at about $50, and a rumor at the extreme close of 600 tons Glengarnock to arrive at $43.—Iron Age.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather yesterday was cool and pleasant, with several light showers of rain during the afternoon. The prospects are still favorable for navigation.

The Mollie Ebert departed for St. Lous on Saturday evening with a fair freight list and engagements below.

The arrivals include the Ella, Simpson Horner, Hyena, Sam Brown, Eagle, Sam Parker, Gilmore, N. J. Bigley No. 2, and J. N. Phillips.

The departure of the Juniata has been deferred until Tuesday.

The Comet arrived at Pomeroy on Thursday, and left the same afternoon with a barge of ore for this city.

The Emma Graham will take her departure for Cincinnati just as soon as she can get her new shaft in place. It is probable she will be ready to leave by next Thursday.

Gen. D. D. Smith, is expected to arrive here within the next forty-eight hours. It is understood that a shaft for experimenting with steam boiler has been secured some few miles up the Monongahela river, and the experimenting will at once be commenced after the arrival of Gen. Smith.

The steamer Wild Duck, C. F. Adams Master, and Geo. R. Spane, Clerk, is advertised to leave Pittsburgh for St. Louis on Wednesday.

—Vicksburg Herald of the 15th: "We learn from Capt. Jim White, of the steamer Bart Able, that the safe on the wharfboat at Greenville was robbed on Wednesday night last of nearly $1,000. The clerk on watch had left the safe keys lying around loose, and this fact was noticed by some unknown party, who improved the opportunity of going through the safe and abstracting the above amount. Most of the money was in the shape of valuable packages, and we understand belonged to Mr. Pollock, of Greenville. Mr. P. and lady left here for the latter city, by the City of Vicksburg, on Sunday last."

—New Orleans Times, of the 15th: "The weather yesterday opened with a slight shower of short duration. During the day the temperature was extremely close, with a slight breeze stirring. Business on the levee opened extremely dull. There were but two departures—the Selma, for mouth of Red river, and Crescent City and barges for St. Louis. In view of the water falling in Red river, captains have agreed after the departure of the steamers La Belle and Charles H. Durfee, to advance the rates of freight to one card rates."

—The Shreveport Times, of July 11, says: "We have nothing later from above the raft than what we published yesterday—river low and falling. Navigation for this season is no doubt suspended. The bayou at Jefferson continues to fall at the rate of six inches in twenty-four hours and at last accounts was eight feet above the lowest water."

—Stuart & Co., Madison, Ind., have closed a contract with J. S. McCune for a St. Louis harbor boat. She will be 145 feet long, stout built, and fitted for general port duty, such as grasping burning steamboats, rescuing boats cut down by the ice, &c.

—The property appraisement lately done for the Keokuk Northern Packet Line includes these steamers: Clinton $62,000, Andy Johnson $40,000, Rob Roy $36,000, Alex. Mitchell $30,000, Lucy Bertram $18,000, Bayard $13,000, Phil. Sheridan $15,000.

Medicines supplied at the Institute. A medical pamphlet relating to private diseases sent in sealed envelope for two stamps. All communications confidential.

This Institute was established for the express purpose of supplying the afflicted with scientific and reliable treatment, and is not to be classed with the numerous quacks and impostors that infest all large cities. The proprietors have made the treatment of Private and special diseases the study of their lives, and can refer to thousands all over the country that have been benefitted and cured by their treatment. No matter how difficult or long standing your case may be, if curable, after a personal examination they will frankly tell you; otherwise, they have cured many cases given up by other physicians.

The Battle at Igualada.

[Special to N. Y. Herald.]

LONDON, July 20.—Reports regarding the battle at Igualada on Friday vary greatly, according as they come from Madrid and Government sources or by Carlist channels through Perpignan. All agree that the place was attacked by the united Carlist columns under Prince Alphonso, and that there was desperate fighting for eighteen hours. One part of the population assisted the defence and the other part sympathized with the Carlists. Madrid reports state the result both ways, but a circumstantial account by way of Perpignan says the place was captured by the Carlists with one thousand prisoners, four cannon and two thousand stand of small arms.

This morning the citizens of this quiet town were startled by the report that a young man named Williams, single, a native of England and a carpenter by trade, had committed suicide by drowning himself in the river. The deceased had been rejected by a young lady to whom he was much attached, and this led him to drink, which produced spells of melancholy. It is believed that he was laboring under one of these spells when he committed suicide. His body has been recovered.

JOHN H. STEWART, P. M.

A "Brave" Officer.

Last evening, about half-past seven o'clock, as a poor unfortunate drunkard was being searched in the lock-up, he happened by accident to strike the acting keeper on the leg, and that very efficient "sub," who of course had done the searching, with his usual manliness, administered to him several sound boxes alongside of the ear; and, as the prisoner was almost helplessly drunk, the action was the more manly and brave. The Chief of Police and Captain Reed were both present and remonstrated with the "noble" officer, but that worthy had to get in another blow before he could be stopped. Will this man be allowed to do any more police duty, is something that the people would like to know.

Aquatic Items.

The single scull race between Pat Louther and Nick Denmarsh will take place on Saturday afternoon next, between three and four o'clock. The second deposit of $200 was made on last Saturday night, and the first deposit of the same amount will be put up on next Friday evening.

The final deposit in the Coulter-Scharff race will be made next Saturday evening.

The Sheridan crew has challenged the Beck four to row a three mile race on the upper Monongahela course for $100 a side or more. A meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at Chris. Feld's, on the South Side, to arrange preliminaries.

On Saturday evening the last deposit of $75 was put up in the Wright-Schneider single sculling match for $150.

The Cornell University crew have presented Mr. and Mrs. Coulter, their trainer and cook, with an elegant ice pitcher valued at $50.

Frank Lenon, of this city, won a single scull race at Philadelphia last Friday. His opponent was Frank Donaldson. The stakes were $200 a side.

The articles of agreement have been signed for the race between the Fisher and Soho crews.

INVESTIGATING THE MAYOR.

The Meeting on Saturday Night.

The committee appointed to investigate irregularities in the Mayor's office met again on Saturday night. Neither Mr. Jeremy, the chairman, nor Clerk Patterson were present. Messrs. Chalmers and Harris, who were on hand, spent a couple of hours in examining a statement of accounts that had been made out, and in comparing bills and accounts. The probated bill from Sullivan & Co., New York, where the cloth was purchased, was presented and examined, and the items were found to be correct so far as the judgment of the examiners went. In the statement submitted by the Clerk was found items headed "sundry payments on clothing," amounting to $250.16, for which no items were set out.

C. Llewellyn, who had either left the force or was discharged, is charged $36.80 for his dress suit and $31.00 for his overcoat—the regular price is $36.11 and $28.25—a discrepancy of $3.44. The committee also found that while the price charged for the dress suit is set down at $36.11, that the three articles actually cost as follows: Dress coat $23.39; pantaloons $9.87; vest $5.25; total $38.51. Price reported $36.11. Difference $2.40.

The committee adjourned to meet again on Tuesday night.

A SATURDAY NIGHT SCRAPE.

An Officer shot

On Saturday evening about nine o'clock two buggies collided opposite the Eastern Exchange on Penn avenue, East Liberty. The occurrence produced a quarrel, when officer Doyle stepped up and attempted to quiet them. One of the men pointed out to a party that were seated in one of the buggies as the parties who had been at fault. The officer walked up to them and attempted to arrest them, when one of the men drew a revolver and said, "There will be a funeral if you attempt to take me." The officer then attempted to arrest him, when he shot him through the arm, inflicting a painful but not serious wound. The men tried to get away, but they were taken to the East End lock-up, where they gave their names as Andrew Henderson, Davy Robinson and Nealy Burns. The latter are notorious characters, Robinson having served several terms in the Work House, and Nealy Burns has been only recently discharged from the Penitentiary. Yesterday morning they had a hearing before Deputy Mayor Irwin, when officer Doyle had made an information of felonious assault and battery against them. They were all remanded to jail in default of $2,000 bail. Later in the day Henderson furnished the desired collateral, and was released.

A VERY MEAN THEFT.

Deaf and Dumb Man Robbed of His Watch.

Everybody who frequents the Mayor's office knows Leopold Sermin, the deaf and dumb man who can be found there at almost all hours of the day. He cannot utter a word, not even a syllable, and a cannon fired off at his side would not cause him to look around. Yet at every fire that occurs in the city he is always present. How he manages to learn there is a fire and how he knows where to reach it is a mystery as yet unsolved. Leopold is quite a favorite among the firemen, and is familiarly called "Dummy," being known by that name everywhere. He is as harmless as a kitten, and just as good natured. Leopold was the owner of a watch yesterday morning, but to-day he is not. Yesterday evening about seven o'clock he was going up the hill to his home on Chatham street, when some one stepped up behind him, threw their arms around his neck and jerked his watch from him, breaking the chain in the operation. Leopold came back to City Hall and told Johnny Hammill as well as he could by motions and gestures that he had been robbed of his watch, of which he was so proud, describing, too, in his way, the appearance of the man who committed the deed. They went up on the hill together, but could not find any one answering the description. The police, however, arrested Fatty Boyle on suspicion of being the robber, but on being brought face to face with Leopold, the latter shook his head to indicate that he was not the man.

The man shrieked under the terrible pain and fell to the ground, a horrid stench and smoke arising from the burning flesh. Assistance was speedily rendered, and as quickly as possible the iron drawn from the flesh. Not a drop of blood was lost, as the iron seared the blood vessels as it tore its way through the muscles. Kuntzler will most likely be crippled for life.

FIRE COMMISSION MEETING.

A Saturday Night Session—New Engines Stationed—Officers' Reports—Discharged and Appointed.

A meeting of the Fire Commission was held on Saturday night. The minutes of the two previous meetings were read, corrected and approved.

The report of the Chief Engineer for the month of June was read. Nineteen fires occurred during the month, with an aggregate loss of $22,565. Nos. 3 and 6 hose carriages broke axles in answering alarms. A recommendation that hose carriages be procured for Nos. 1 and 2 was referred to the Monthly Committee. George Mullen was appointed to fill a vacancy occasioned by a resignation in the Mechanics Hose Company, on the South Side.

The Monthly Committee reported accounts payable for the month of June, amounting to $3,282.10. On motion of Col. Stewart, all bills properly probated, were ordered to be paid. Mr. McElroy, from the Building Committee, reported that the Walton hose house, and the engine house on Hiland avenue, would be ready for occupancy during the coming week. A warrant was drawn for the amount of the bill for the construction of the Forty-fourth street engine house, amounting to $11,250, in accordance with the written opinion of City Attorney Bigelow.

Doctor Foster reported that Wm. Redpath, who was injured some time ago while on duty, was still unable to go to work. On motion of Colonel Stewart it was decided to discharge Redpath from the department to date from August 1, and that his doctor bill, amounting to $55, be paid. The reason given for this action is that Redpath is suspected of "playing possum."

It was moved and carried that the Vigilant engine be ordered to be transferred to the Forty fourth street house, the Henry Hays to the Seventh-avenue house, and that the Niagara go out of service, and that one of the new hose carriages be placed in the Niagara house, with two horses and one thousand feet of hose, and that it answer same alarms that truck No. 1 answers.

On motion of Mr. Jones the new engine No. 12 was ordered temporarily to the Walton hose house on the South Side, the "Wm. M. Lyon" to be placed in the Duquesne house, and the James Mc C. Creighton was ordered to be taken to East Liberty.

Among the numerous visitors at Bedford Springs, we notice the following Pittsburghers: Mrs. S. A. Purviance, Dr. James King, M. G. Semple, John W. Duncan, Denney Brothers, F. M. Kerr, Mrs. Spring, Misses Spring, J. Page and family, Charles Hidleburgh, Rev. J. G. Gottman, S. C. Morganstein, wife and family, J. Morganstein and daughter, Mrs. M. Morganstein and daughter, Solomon Kline and wife, Samuel and James H. Hopkins.

Dr. L. Oldshue and his son Dr. John L. Oldshue, arrived home last Thursday from a fortnights sojourn in the far western states. They had a very pleasant trip, and have many funny stories to tell concerning their experiences on the frontier. While making a brief visit to some relatives in Fremont, Iowa, Dr. John in company with a number of friends took a swim in Skunk river, and he says they had to stone the water snakes away before they could swim across.

Mr. J. N. Gotthold, now that the summer season at the Opera House has closed, will betake himself eastward for a short tour of recreation, taking his family with him. He will visit New York, and after looking to matters and things there, will go to Long Branch and Cape May, and make a general tour of the watering places. Mr. Gotthold has proved himself an efficient manager and a courteous and affable gentleman, and his many friends and admirers in this vicinity will wish him a pleasant vacation. While he is gone, the Opera House interiorly will undergo a decided tranformation. It will be newly frescoed and decorated throughout, and in this respect will be made one of the handsomest, as well as it is now one of the cosiest, places of amusement in the country.

Dr Harris' Summer Cordial has been used in Nashville, Tenn., in a number of the severest Cases of Cholera, and effected a cure in every case.

Already Pittock & Co., have gathered their harvest of Monthlies from which we select for special commendation as always good: "Appleton's "Popular Science Monthly," "Scribner's Illustrated Monthly," "Harper's New Monthly," "Atlantic Monthly" and "Demorest's Mirror of Fashions." Besides these and other standard Monthlies there will be found on Pittock & Co.'s counter an endless variety of other literary matter of all grades.

Dr. Harris' Cramp Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cholera, Cramps, or severe pain in the stomach or bowels. One teaspoonful will convince the most incredulous as to its merits.

Dr. Harris' Summer Cordial should be in very house where there are children.

MIDSUMMER MALARIA.

At this season the heat of the sun liberates from the soil the water and filth of cities, immense quantities of unwholesome gases which the strongest can scarcely inhale with impunity, and which develop the most distressing diseases in the weak and feeble. It is, therefore, of paramount importance to invigorate the body in hot weather. Vitalize and strengthen the stomach and the nervous system with at least two doses per day of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and you will be sure to escape the fits of indigestion, attacks of bilious colic, sick headaches, diarrhœas and dysenteries which are so common at this season. Be prudent. A little care and forecast exercised now, may prevent your being prostrated by remittent or intermittent fever, or by chronic bowel or liver complaint throughout the fall. When vigor is oozing out of every pore under the rays of an almost vertical sun, this genial vegetable tonic supplies the nervous system an aliment which enables it to withstand the drain.

25x100 feet, about two minutes' walk from Central Car station, Thirteenth ward. These Lots are in an eligible, healthy location and good neighborhood, near church and schools, and very desirable for dwellings. To persons of moderate means, or for an investment, they are the most desirable Lots in the market, being easy of access and but a short distance from the large manufacturing establishments of the city, and still away from the smoke and dirt of the city. Will be sold lower than any lots now in the market.
